5-1. Old Age Pension

The Colorado Old Age Pension (OAP) program provides a minimum level of income to needy Colorado residents age 60 or older. To qualify, an applicant's countable income must be less than the OAP standard of need, which is $821 ($1,642 for a married couple). An applicant's resources must be below $2,000 for a single person, $3,000 for a couple.

The benefit calculation and resource rules are similar to those used in the SSI program.

Applications may be filed at the County Department of Human Services (see "Resources" in section 5-6, below). Documents to bring include:

- ▶ Proof of age (birth certificate);
- ▶ Proof of citizenship or resident alien status (birth certificate or naturalization certificate);
- ▶ Proof of Colorado residency (photo ID, mail);

- ▶ Proof of income and assets;
- ▶ Social Security or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) award letters or copies of checks;
- ▶ Bank statements; and
- ▶ Copies of life insurance policies.

5-2. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

Seniors with limited income and resources may be eligible for the supplemental nutrition assistance program, or SNAP. In general, people age 60 or older, living alone, must have gross income of less than $1,383 per month, and non-exempt resources of less than $3,500 to qualify. The limits are higher for couples and larger households. SSI and OAP recipients are automatically eligible for at least a minimal SNAP award.

The value of the SNAP award depends on the household income.

Household Income Limits
Size	Gross Income per Month	Size	Gross Income per Month
1	$1,383	6	$3,809
2	$1,868	7	$4,295
3	$2,353	8	$4,780
4	$2,839	8+	Add for each: $486
5	$3,324

Applications may be filed at the local county Department of Human Services offices. See “Resources” in section 5-6, below.

Colorado also recognizes categorical eligibility for food stamps where any member of the household also is eligible for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), County Diversion Assistance, or State Diversion Assistance, and where all members of the household are eligible for SSI.

5-3. Energy Assistance Programs

The Governor’s Energy Office (GEO), at <https://energyoffice.colorado.gov>, offers free energy efficiency upgrades and safety inspections for income-eligible households. The Energy Saving Partners (ESP) programs aim to lower energy bills, eliminate unsafe conditions, and improve the comfort of their recipients.

As energy costs continue to rise, investing in residential energy-efficiency improvements becomes more attractive and more economically sensible. Unfortunately, limited discretionary income prevents many households from responding to price signals and incentives. At the same time, the burden of energy costs upon household income is the greatest for these consumers.

An average household consumes about 900 therms of gas and about 8,000 kilowatt hours (kWh) of electricity per year. Various factors affect the amount of energy that a household consumes, including the thermal efficiency of the home, the operating efficiency of the heating system, the number of occupants, the age of appliances, and consumption behaviors of the occupants. Recognizing the variability in needs, the GEO has designed a variety of energy-efficiency services that are provided free of charge to eligible recipients.

There are many benefits to the home-efficiency services provided by the GEO. Its programs are designed to assist income-qualified households, so reducing the recipient's energy costs is a top priority. In addition to reducing utility costs, its services offer a wide range of non-energy-related benefits. Because the GEO's services often include health and safety inspections, recipients can avoid hazardous conditions that could lead to fires or unsafe buildup of carbon monoxide. Recipients of these services will also benefit from a more comfortable living space as a result of increased climate control.

If you have received assistance from any of the following programs in the past 12 months, you are automatically eligible for the GEO's services: the Low-Income Energy Assistance Program (LEAP; described below), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security Disability Income (SSDI), Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), OAP, or Aid to the Needy Disabled (AND). You also may qualify if you are on Medicaid. Apply for the GEO's services by calling (303) 866-2100 or the HEAT HELP line at (866) 432-8435, or contacting your local county Department of Human Services. (See "Resources," section 5-6.)

An important energy assistance program is LEAP, which helps participants pay for winter home heating costs. To be eligible, your family household income needs to fall within 60 percent of the state median income level (see chart below), you must pay home heating costs to an energy provider or as part of your rent, and you must be a permanent and legal resident of the United States and Colorado. Applications will be accepted from November 1 through April 30.

LEAP Eligibility
People in Household	Gross Monthly Income Limits
1	$2,619
2	$3,425
3	$4,231
4	$5,038
5	$5,844
6	$6,650
7	$6,801
8	$6,952
8+	Add for each: $151

You can apply for LEAP at your local county Department of Human Services, by downloading a LEAP application and applying online at <https://cdhs.colorado.gov/leap>, or by calling (866) HEAT-HELP (866-432-8435). The application is available in English and Spanish.

5-4. Veterans' Benefits

Two programs provide benefits for disabled veterans.

Veterans with service-connected disabilities may be entitled to a compensation benefit regardless of their income or resources. The amount of the benefit depends on the level of disability. Veterans who are rated as being more than 30 percent disabled also are entitled to a benefit for their dependents.

Veterans with nonservice-connected disabilities also may be entitled to a pension benefit, but only if they are permanently and totally disabled and have limited income and assets.

When a veteran dies, the surviving spouse and minor children may be eligible for pension benefits if the survivors' incomes are below a certain level. If the death was due to a service-connected disability, the surviving spouse is eligible for benefits that are not income based.

Medical care is provided at Veterans Administration (VA) hospitals and clinics for all service-related medical conditions.

Hospital care at VA hospitals and nursing home care at VA nursing homes is available to veterans who have service-connected disabilities, who receive a VA pension, or who fall into other special categories, such as former prisoners of war. Hospital care may be provided, as space is available, to other veterans, if the veteran's income is below the eligibility limit.

The Veterans Administration may contribute to the cost of burial, a headstone or marker, and a burial flag. The veteran may be eligible to be buried in a national cemetery.

To apply for VA benefits, write, call, or visit your local VA regional office. In Denver, it is at 155 Van Gordon St., Lakewood, CO 80228, online at www.va.gov, telephone: (800) 827-1000. Or contact the Colorado Division of Veterans Affairs DVA Eastern Division, 1355 S. Colorado Blvd., Bldg. C, Rm. 113, Denver, CO 80222, telephone: (303) 284-6077; or DVA Western Division, 482 28 Rd., Grand Junction, CO 81501, telephone: (970) 257-3760; online: <https://vets.colorado.gov>.

Applicants for VA benefits are advised to seek the assistance of a veterans' advocate such as the Colorado Division of Veterans Affairs.

See Chapter 6, "Veterans' Benefits," for more information.

5-5. Telephone Assistance Program

The Colorado Low Income Telephone Assistance Program (LITAP), also called "Lifeline," provides for a discount on basic phone services for individuals receiving benefits from Old Age Pension, Aid to the Blind, SSI, Aid to the Needy/Disabled, TANF, Medicaid, and SNAP. All telecommunications companies that operate in the state are required to offer LITAP.

Discounts vary. There also may be a discount for installation of new phone service. For information on how to apply, call (303) 866-5700 for the Colorado Department of Human Services or email: cdhs_communications@state.co.us.
