

Appendix B.

Legal Resources*

As noted in the Preface to this Senior Law Handbook, this Handbook is for informational purposes only. In addition to the resources listed at the end of many of the chapters of the Senior Law Handbook, there are others that you may contact to seek legal representation or advice. Some of these are listed here.

AARP/Elderwatch: AARP Foundation ElderWatch

Answer calls into ElderWatch, a partnership of the AARP Foundation and Colorado Attorney General, from Coloradans age 50+ who are reporting business complaints, fraud, scams, and financial exploitation. ElderWatch provides educational information, assistance, and referrals to appropriate agencies.

Colorado Legal Services

Provides legal representation and advice in civil legal matters such as housing, public benefits, welfare, social security, mental health, and elder law. Also provides a list of self-help resources on civil legal topics. You must apply for representation. CLS serves low-income Coloradans; you must apply and qualify for assistance. Several offices also offer senior legal service in addition to the low-income program. Regional offices are listed on the CLS website.
